TUESDAY, JUNE 21, 1864.

THE ORIENTAL TREATY.

By the news which arrived on Sunday from Montevideo (which will be found in another column) it appears that people in Montevideo are hourly expecting the proclamation of peace, whilst in Buenos Ayres the Orientals who belong to the Colorado party are equally confident that no peace will be entered into on the bases proposed. Possibly, now since the Brazilian squadron has arrived, the revolutionists in Buenos Ayres will be less pretentious, but it is a matter of the deepest regret to every foreigner who takes any interest in the future of the Uruguay to see the efforts which are now made to defeat the negotiations.

Unless the real object for opposing peace is to bring about the most serious complications in the River Plate, we cannot understand the arguments adduced; but on our mind there is very little time to be lost, to save the independence of a sister republic and rescue this republic from a rather questionable struggle.

Besides, it is right to remark that the Argentine Minister, whose sympathy is avowedly with the Colorado party, has in his interviews with the Minister, met with the most cordial treatment from President Aguirre's Government. All he asked on behalf of the party which Flores leads was freely conceded. If therefore Mr. Thornton and Sr. Elizalde are to be made tools of simply to please the Colorado men of this city, both they and Flores must take the consequences. Regarding the matter on its whole bearing, we think that it is extremely improbable that Flores would attempt to play such a role, more particularly as he knows the constitution of authority, that his merry men are suffering the greatest hardships, owing to the severity of the weather, and are deserting fast. Those we firmly believe are anxious to make peace as his friends, who live in comfortable houses in this city, are for war.

A great dispute is now going on touching the immutability of principles and such like, that the terms of peace as proposed by M. Elizalde have not interests precisely in the same state as the day before Flores invaded and that consequently the revolution has after all gained ground. We say this, how ever; the Flores revolution has succeeded in bringing the country to the very verge of ruin—the Flores revolution has established one great fact, and that is that nowadays the people who create a civil war, they and their children, have to pay for it. If there is one particular Oriental in this city, one true republican who holds up the immortal Washington as the prototype of republican excellence, what must be his feelings at seeing his country ruined, his fellow countrymen bugg ared, and all for what? Verily, the return of Flores is a calamity less than the survivors who have undertaken to avenge them. If the peace negotiations are broken off, if Sr. Flores thinks proper to snub Messrs. Thornton, Elizalde and Lamas, if the revolution is to be continued, then we call up the map of South American Oriental and exclaim with the heroic Madame Roland, "Oh Liberty! what crimes are committed in thy name."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We hear that the prospects of the National Government are so good that some Argentine Capitalists are leagued together in buying up all the bonds of the National Government. They pay as high as 45 per cent, and we have no doubt they will soon touch "fifty." We caution our friends against selling the national bonder if we have peace they will next year be worth par.

The "Informe Pacifico" publishes a most interesting article on the subject of wool growing all over the globe; we will try to reproduce it as it will interest our camp subscribers.

A new emigration society is badly needed, as the present one is utterly useless. We hope the Governor will take the matter up. We want a good agricultural company started, with a capital of a million patacons. If the Government would only guarantee such a company seven per cent. interest on the capital the company would be easily formed in London.

We got a peep into the share-book of the Central Railway the other day; never was there a more damning proof of the want of public spirit amongst our citizens than this book. But few remaining shares on hand we hope to see taken by one spirited Argentine to redeem the character of the country in such enterprizes. Should any other be started in this country the voices of stonnire will have his eyes opened as to what sympathy he can expect from the selfish Argentine capitalists.

There is a new English washing establishment started in Barracas, (see advertisement). We hope that the Christian ladies in town will support it, as the terms are remarkably reasonable.

All the English cemeteries in town are at present worked to death making dresses, etc., for the weddings which will shortly come off. Ella a pity that our Tea-Table-Talk was received with less favor than our Editor's Table, as there is a deal of little social chit chat going on.

Last Sunday there was a grand ceremony, the christening of a Turk, who is about to be married to a very rich Porteña. The Turks are peculiarly successful in captivating wealthy Porteñas.

Martin Garcia is represented, by one of our colleagues, to be in a most ill sanitary condition. They did last year spend on Martin Garcia towers, we feel inclined to say that the Minister of War should be brought up before the bar and interrogated on the subject.

Another important lawsuit, which has come up on appeal from the Chaco comuns courts, is that against a M. Fortunato Perez, for a wager lost at Monte with a Don Cayetano Chavez, who is the plaintiff, asserts that the race was null. The court has decided in favour of the respondent.

The British steamer Conway leaves on next Sunday. Mails close at the Consul's office on Saturday even ing at 5 o'clock. We are glad that the agent of the English Postmaster-General has advertised his Post-office notice in all the native papers, and forgotten to give an advertisement to the "Standard."

In consequence of an unpleasant question arising the other day with a subscriber about an advertisement for one of his wives, we think it necessary to advise our readers that all advertisements not being permanent, must be paid for in advance.

The little Argentine steamer, bearing the euphonious name of Felix Colon, has been getting her boilers made larger, and, we believe, will start again on to-morrow. She will call at Martin Garcia.

We hear that the popular and commodious stables, in front of President Mitre's house, are about to be shut up, as the owner of the property is about to build a stately mansion on the site of the hill. As a proof of the sudden rise in value of property in that locality, we would state that the stables were offered for sale for 2,5,000 dollars some three years ago, and now the owner refuses to sell it for a million.

There are persistent rumours are circulating through town, respecting the failure and suicide of the unfortunate Chevalier ——. We have not as yet, however, that these versions are utterly destitute of foundation, and are circulated by a few indignant creditors.

Every vessel that comes from Paraguay, now brings us tobacco. The quantity coming down stated, that it is far superior to last year's crop; and the bales which have arrived, show a most scrupulously careful assortment. Prices are also stated relatively low, and many parties think that quotations will shortly reach 20 and 27 rls. for Government leaf.

We have to return our thanks to Captain Curlewis, who has kindly favoured us with an interesting pamphlet, containing a list of the exports of the Plymouth, Falmouth and Southampton, as steampacket ports. Upon a careful perusal of the book, we have arrived at the conclusion that Southampton possesses, by far, more advantages than the other two. It appears that the subject is creating great attention in England, as the Postmaster-General, it seems, entertained the idea of changing the station.

We perceive that the new organ, presented by Mr. Edward Lumb to the English Church, has as last arrived in the Governor's Nightingale, from London. Mr. Lumb deserves the thanks of the English community for his true British liberality, and we hope some of our rich Argentine friends will imitate this spirited Englishman, and present one of Telford's best organs to the Cathedral, where it is so badly wanted.

Mr. Haedo is now completely eclipsed, in the way of railway iron importing, by Mr. Ezequiel, who owns the one of all the furnaces in England working for Paraguyan railways; scarce a ship from England now puts into Asuncion that does not bring heavy consignments of Barlow rails, bolts, &c., to the Paraguyan agent.

Sunday and Monday, what splendid days for photographing. For the last five years we have not had two such rainy days. On Sunday there was a Scotch mist, that wet one more than if it rained in torrents; and on Monday it came on as a cool norther. The members of Congress drove down in their carriages to the House yesterday, but it was a lucky coincidence that the next sederunt was not introduced. We believe that if even some philanthropic Argentine was to offer to water the city for nothing—only the mere honor of the thing to be refused, he would, in this terribly rainy weather. Of course, there was no meeting in the Plaza about Flores. We should think intoxicating odour of some of that real old Irish whiskey which they sell, and which they are taking in the waggon at the time of the accident

The splendid mansion in Barracas belonging to a French merchant of this city, we fancy shortly to be sold by auction. We wish we had money enough to buy it. We can't say that we admire the peculiar style of architecture, but it is a most commodious house and finished with the greatest elegance.

ROSARIO ITEMS.

Mr. Brocklesman has left the house of Dugald and Co., and the power of attorney granted him by that firm has been cancelled.

Mr. Manuel Curé states in an advertisement that he used some ungentlemanlike expressions, in a moment of anger, against Mr. Jurienez, which he publicly retracts.

Dr. Antonio Arcosa, who, it appears, has failed, gave in a polite way to work: he calls on all his creditors to send in their accounts to be liquidated. This is a genteel way of winding up, and we hope to see it adopted here.

An animated discussion took place in one of the most fashionable streets, as to whether the new Governor would succeed. Mr. Hughes we are subscribers to the "Standard"; high words ensued between the parties. We have looked over our Rosario list, but find they are not. Possibly these consular gentlemen don't understand English.

The Captain of the Port is still in the greatest perplexity as to the two canoes which he found. Will nobody claim them?

A general order has been fixed for the arrest of all the small boys in the town, as they are found to be a great nuisance.

Two offers sent in for building a bridge over the Saladillo have not been accepted, and new bids are called for, to be sent in before the 31st June. When that day will occur we are at a loss to say; but we suppose some wag in the Government House purposely so worded the notice to prove the remote possibility of even having such a bridge constructed.

On the 20th inst., at twelve o'clock, 200 mares are to be knocked down (provided they don't kick) at public auction by order of Government. The marks on the brutes are said to be unknown in that part of the world, possibly if they were down here owners might be found. We would believe that every imaginable mark capable of being put on an animal's hind quarter is registered at the Town Hotel. This subject, I suppose, is attracting attention in Rosario, and Government, anxious to know what the marks used in the provinces are, for the safety of all, asked for a competent party to come forward and make a tender for getting up a book of marks for Santa Fe.

Tucuman tobacco is coming down from the interior, and several bales are offered for sale in Rosario. We are delighted to see this, as it is a splendid staple. A new firm has been started in Rosario and San Juan; Messrs. Moreno Bros. and the managers of the houses seem to be of Teutonic descent, Mr. William Willniger and Mr. German Congreve.

Mr. Perkins, the talented editor of the "Ferro-carril," is most untiring in his efforts to further the Argentine Central Railway Company; he has subscribed for twelve shares himself. This beats all the Buenos Ayrean editors hollow. We took ten, and if the price falls we may take but five, intending taking ten more. Mr. Perkins deserves our warmest praise for laboring in so noble a cause. We want more Perkinses in River Plate.

The theatre is open, and we hear well supported.

Mr. Michael Vidal has lost some Treasury notes in the streets of Rosario. It is surmised that they were dropped in the street and lost in the mud.

Mr. Tilston, the popular manager of Messrs Smith's Bros., of Montevideo, is shortly to leave Buenos for Salto, the vidoes: his loss will be greatly felt amongst the foreigners.

Amongst the extraordinary items from Rosario is, that at the printing office of the "Ferro-carril there are goats for sale.

Mr. Barrero's ultimatum, or protest, has been published, and has produced almost the same effect in Rosario as it did in Buenos Ayres. All thinking men have come to the conclusion for themselves that the troubles she herself has caused.

The "Ferro-carril has a terrible attack on the Government; it states that their Government is not suited for the Argentine Confederation. Possibly our province colleague would like to see a Mitre, Paz, Flores, or Lopez, Governor Entero. All this country wants is peace—peace at any cost. We profess to have no proofs of ignorance as to the internal policy of political matters in that province, but it has attracted our attention that Mr. Taboada's province is the most peaceable in the republic. Who has ever heard of a revolution in Santiago del Estero?

"Buenas noches Sor. Don Simon," is all that is at present in Rosario. This funny farce is quite a favourite up the river.

Our colleague states that there is a prominent silence as to the Commissioners of the National Debt. We only wish that Mr. Perkins could drop some light into the dark Junta Grad Ocampo's office; he would open also his opinion; and then again has not Mr. Gordillo been despatched?

Our Rosario correspondent now asks what Paraguay means by the late Peruvian question? We take upon ourself to answer the question. Judging from the present policy of Don Carlos Lopez, we should say that he means to assist America and refrain from insulting Europe.

An action of land took place in Rosario on the 11th, 12th, and 13th inst., by order of Government. The Chief Engineer of the Department of Union. We have not heard how the bidding went.

CORRIENTES.

The Convention having concluded its labors and reformed the Provincial Constitution, with a clause that it cannot now be altered for 10 years. Governor Lagraña has signed his abrie and it becomes law. Don Felipe Cabral having declined the post of Minister of Government, Don Antonio Segovia has been appointed to the office. The Municipality of Corrientes is making some reforms in the Police department, and, the state of the prisons being disgustingly insanitary measures are taken respecting same. It is surprising that crime is not still more frequent, as murder may be said to enjoy comparative impunity. It is only a few days since we mentioned the case of a man who murdered his wife and inoffensive man in cold blood, and after being twice condemned to death was only sentenced to work in full pay and rations. We now read that on the 4th of August 1863 (the day of the massacre at Olambo, in which the present Lieutenant Governor received a poor fellow named Eugenio Almiron on the highway near Esquina) that the present Lieutenant Governor received a poor fellow named Eugenio Almiron on the highway near Esquina, and after having secured him (as it was proved that he had sworn to kill his victim whenever he found him, and after he had secured him, he stooped (with several others) from prison, but was set-keen. The first court sentenced him only to seven years' service in the army, although the crime was clearly proved. Gomez being taken with the bloody knife in his hand; on second trial he was condemned to death, but on appeal he received five hours' but this was only a joke, for the hide-and-seek system gave him a third trial, which confirmed his diploma for military service, prolonging the term to 10 years, but nothing special is provided regarding his pay and rations.

An unfortunate man named Santuchez, of Goya, was attacked by a fellow named Lago who stabbed him with a knife and beat him with "puleadora," whereupon Santuchez killed his aggressor: the comical courts of Corrientes panish self defence as were there called bloodied assassination, and poor Santuchez has been made a soldier for 7 years, with pay and rations. A Brazilian named Jose Joaquin broke into a house at Monte caseros, on the 28th Nov. 1863, and robbed the place, afterwards spending the money in an Italian tavern, belonging to one Solari, he accused two friends of being his accomplices, and for this ingratitude the court ordered him military service for five years with full rations and half pay.

At the wood cutting establishment (obraje) of D. Felisardo Enrique, in the Gran Chaco, a fight occurred between the expatas and an Indian, resulting in several wounds to the former and the death of the latter. The expatas has been arrested, as the event is likely to compromise the safety of the white men in the Chaco, the Indians making it a rule to kill so many in retaliation for one of their people.

Mr. Zinny reports 9 hurriers and 97 day scholars in the Nat. College, but complains of the bad attendance of the children. D. Carlos Hostelli has been named chief assistant to the active and intelligent Mr. Zinny.

There is not a word about cotton, and this criminal neglect on the part of our colleagues is more unaccountable as we understand the picking goes on actively. The Progreso fills its columns with nonsense about Peru, instead of attending to the real industrial interests of Corrientes. Little hope can be held out for such people, and we do not expect to see that province keep pace with the rest, in the great march of progress on which the Republic is now entering. Until crime be punished and industry fomented, we strongly advise immigrants not to think of settling in Corrientes, however flattering the professions of Government.

PROGRESS IN PARAGUAY.

We read in the 'Semanario' that the railway from Asuncion to Pirayu is no longer managed by Brigadier engineers, but by two Paraguayans named Juan G Almiron and Exeal otico Ramos. After a few years the country will be entirely independent of foreign genius, native youths being educated in all the various branches of scientific and mechanical skill. One hundred young men are receiving the most superior education which the (rotten?) kingdoms of Europe can afford, and a much larger number at home is under the able superintendence of experienced Englishmen. Paraguayans prove remarkably apt scholars among others D. Candido Barreira, Minister at Paris and London (only 7 years old) is to make a favorable impression in Europe And at home this wonderful progress will be more remarkable when the railways, telegraphs, arsenal &c. are in full play. The telegraph lines, so ridiculed by the 'Nacion Argentina,' if for no other reason, will prove of great utility in rendering the frontiers additionally secure, and it is probable years will elapse before the Argentine Republic can boast such splendid frontier service as exists from the Tres Bocas to the uttermost extremity of Paraguay. The trains are to be finished here to Villa Rica run now three days in the week, instead of one day, as before.

MUD, MUD, MUD!

Camp News.

The state of the roads is truly awful On Friday a distinguished Belgian merchant of this city was driving westwards down the Calle Larga, intent upon buying wool at the first barrace he entered, when suddenly he came upon one of Admiral Mc'Kinnon's, and a general smash ensued. We dont mean to say that the merchant smashed, but his gig—a bran-new Milord—was knocked into a cocked hat. We leave our readers to imagine the plight of the owner.

The Barones del pencers we learn from recently about to reduce the fare on their line, as since they have charged ten dollars people prefer walking to sitting in greasy diligences.

The roads are now getting a little better, but last week they were in an awful state. Only a few days ago, a gentleman who had invested in a sewing machine, was nearly capsized at the Tres Esquinas; luckily the pig righted and the sewing machine was saved.

One of the most favorite amusements now-a-days in the Partido of Ensenada is sheep stealing. We heard of one case the other day where three fellows went up in broad daylight and cut away a point from a poor man's flock. The owner, being alone, was afraid to go near the robbers, but started off for the Alcalde. When he got back the sheep were gone and no trace or tittings of the robbers. What a scandalous thing to occur in the populous camps of Buenos Ayres why, in Santa Fe or Corrientes such a thing was never attempted.

Freights per bullock cart to the country towns in this province are at present on the most frightful pitch. People will hardly believe it, yet positively it costs 16s to send a 'bulto' to England the same to Chascomus. The earthenware notwithstanding, are just as poor as ever, verifying the old saying, "if got, ill gone." Mr. Rommell now wags an enterprize, we hear, in anything but lucrative at present, owing to the poor communications, badness, and miserable state of the roads.

The sheepfarmers are at last, thank heaven, doing well. This winter has been a perfect boon to the poor, for shearable, and we know of hundreds of persons who are waiting until shearing to commence their sheep. The preceding year has, however, been very backward, owing, we believe, to the drought last year.

ENTRE RIOS.

An English gentleman, who has just arrived from Entre Rios, states that he has been to Urquiza's, and stayed a few days there. San Jose, he says, is completely deserted, and the owner has turned the extremely pretty gardens, which was once so attractive, is overgrown with weeds; even the table which the Captain-General keeps, has sunk to the level of an ordinary estancier's. Things have wonderfully fallen off late at San Jose; the General has ceased to rear cows and beef, instead of as formerly about instructional rights and the law of nations. Cold, distant, and surly is the owner of San José. Unconcerned to be insulted affable and hospitable, as was his want. We visited San Jose in 1859, it was then the abode of an English nobleman. Our friend left it a disconsolate. And found it the unpretentious dwelling of an Entre Rians estancier.

Gualeguaychu is becoming quite anglified. Several foreigners have found their way up there, and invested in land and sheep. The Monk Bank is about to open a branch in the thriving town. This was all that was wanted to drive this place ahead, but the mouth of the river must be cleared, so as to let the steamer in. A little money spent in this work would make Gualeguaychu the first town in the Uruguay.

HANDBOOK FOR 1865.

On the first of July we commence our Hand Book for 1865, in which we trust to make a great improvement on that for 1864. It will be ready and on sale on the 1st of December next. We hope that our subscribers will prove our friends and send us in all the information and hints in their power. In this country it is almost impossible to get statistics, we therefore fling ourselves on the generosity of our subscribers for useful local information. We hope our subscribers at all points of the Argentine compass to bear a hand, and help us. It will be a book of reference advertisements in our last edition; we purpose this year to receive but a limited number, the charge will be Five Hundred Dollars per page, and no advertizement will be received after the 1st of August. Several of our camp subscribers have failed to send us an account of the Lists which we sent them. We appeal to them to send in their accounts without delay, and hope that when we send our next invoices, our subscribers will kindly call their attention to the matter.

IMPORTANT MEASURE

On Friday a measure of great importance passed the House of Representatives and the public will wait with hopeful expectancy to hear that it has become law. It is one providing a subsidy of $150,000 a year for the establishment of direct steamship communication between the United States and this port, subject to the appropriation of a similar amount for the same service by the Brazilian Government.

The proposed steamship subsidy, which we notice by facilitating intercommunication by mail and otherwise was supported by many Commissioners who happened to have a fair chance of becoming an accomplished fact. The further steps to be taken in Congress present no insuperable difficulties, and there never was a moment more favorable than the present for making to Congress the proposal of opening up commercial understanding. The time is opportune on the ground of the friendly relations between the Brazilian Empire and England—difficulties which, as every one knows, have had their origin mainly, if not exclusively, in the slave trade or connected therewith, and the recurrence of which the Government of Brazil will no doubt see—can be in great part prevented by inviting and encouraging severer competition with England than at present exists for the Brazilian carrying trade.

Then, again, the advantage of a comparative enterprise of this kind is of the greatest consequence, in view of the temporary suspension of privateering on the high seas. The Brazilian Company's vessels will naturally carry a flag which would give them immunity from the risks of piracy; and although this, in ordinary times, would not come into account, it is well to reckon the advantages in any view of having the proposed steamship line in operation at the earliest possible moment.

The amount of the proposed subsidy is considerable, and yet, looking at it comparatively, it is decidedly among the most rigid economist. In spite of the fact of the line being notoriously unserviceable at repeated intervals, from the numerous losses in vessels—the Montreal Steamship Company has drawn from the poor Provincial Government, for a series of years, $416,000 annually; and this, too, despite of another fact, that for half the year its vessels touch at no Canadian port. Let us hope for success to the steamship line connecting us with Brazil.

Central Argentine Railway

Since our appointment on Saturday, three gentlemen have called at our office to take, each, one share.

We hope our camp friends will favour the great enterprise: a share only costs £20, and there are two years to pay it up in full. Every shareholder is a benefactor to the country.

CONCEPCION

We have received the 'Uruguay' of the 10th inst.: it is absolutely devoid of news, containing only a letter from our Mr. G. B. Cook (perhaps a relative to the late T. P. Cook) who endeavored to get up amateur theatricals for the benefit of the schools, but failed. The Bank of Entre Rios has made a second call of 25 p.% on the shareholders.

IMPORTANT FROM MONTEVIDEO.

Her Brittanic Majesty's steam gun vessel 'Spider,' Commander Stubbs, arrived here yesterday from Montevideo, with very important despatches for His Excellency, the President of the Argentine Republic, and H. M.'s Minister Plenipotentiary. When Commander Stubbs left Montevideo the Foreign Ministers had not returned, nor was it known when they would. It was reported that they met Flores (at Jackson's quinta), somewhere between San Jose and Rosario, and that negociations were to commence on Friday last. News of peace being declared was hourly and anxiously anticipated throughout Montevideo.

The English steamer 'Paraguay' arrived on Frid y the 17th inst., 42 days from England. During the voyage her cargo shifted, which caused her to heel over very much on her beam ends in which state she arrived at Montevideo.

The Brazilian Squadron had arrived at Montevideo, and a French sloop of war from France: the 'Fortune' and gun boat 'Decidée,' form the French squadron there.

Her Brittanic Majesty's ships at Montevideo were, H. M.'s gunboat 'Shieldrake,' Acting senior officer during the absence of the 'Satellite,' Capt. S. S. Crofton; the 'Triton,' Lieut. and Commander Napier, which vessel remains to convey the Foreign Embassy on their return to Buenos Ayres. The 'Spider,' Lieut. and Commander Stubbs, left under sail about 4 o'clock, and experienced fine foggy weather the whole voyage up from Montevideo.

MAILS.

The Esmeralda arrived at San Fernando on Saturday evening with mails from Corrientes, which arrived here by mail same night, the steamer coming into port on Sunday with 21 passengers

The Salto arrived yesterday at 2 p.m from the River Uruguay with 57 passengers, and peaceful rumours.

The British packets arrived yesterday morning from Montevideo, with important news.

Yet the 'National' says 'no steamer arrived to-day.' They must have been asleep all day at 61 Bolivar.

The Sanitary Committee Meeting.

Owing to press of matter, and the lateness of the hour when the meeting at the Hon. Mr. Kirk's broke up, yesterday, we are obliged to hold over our report until to-morrow.

MR. WELLS' BENEFIT

Will come off to-morrow night. We think the foreign residents will liberally patronize him.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Errata. In Sunday's article on fossils from Patana, there were two misprints: speaking of the soil accumulated over them, it should read "a couple of hundred years" instead of "a couple of years" and at the head of column 3, a line is omitted; the passage should read "either by the slow or gradual deposit of ages, carried down by the current, or in the Universal Deluge."

Rocket Edition. Friday being a strict holiday (St. John's) there will be no paper on Saturday; and as Rio Mercury leaves on Sunday, our packet for England will be made up on Thursday and published on Friday morning.

Notwithstanding that one of the leading bulls threw 10,030 patacons on market to-day, prices held firm; the the operation only had the effect of keeping buying orders from coming in.

The Salto arrived from the Uruguay with news to the effect that a chasque had just arrived in Mercedes, and that it was generally believed in that town that peace was at last made.

The exchange transactions for the packet, at the present, are of a rather limited character; possibly, towards the close of the week, more takers will make their appearance, but up to the present, the amount of the bills of exchange have been negotiated on terms the least advantageous to drawers.

There is an uneasy feeling both in this and the Montevidean market, owing to the tone of the native press regarding the proposed treaty of peace with Flores. Merchants say that the leaders of our colleagues, on either side of the River Plate, are calculated more to prolong than terminate the war. We could have desired more moderation, but we still cling to the hope that peace will be realised: any advantage, or any demand, no matter what, should be conceded, to arrive at so desirable an object.

Gathering accumulation of doubloons from the market is becoming the subject of conversation on 'Change. Foreign coin of every name is most abundant, but ounces have vanished, and we learn, from the saladeristas, that doubloons have not gone up the rivers in Mount Hedges; in fact, if we are to believe report, even in Rosario they are scarce. The general opinion is, that the ounces are held up by the very gentlemen who have come for the Central Railway Company, 'Argentine capitalists.' In England, and other countries, gold locked up in an iron safe is as dead as a mackerel, but in Buenos Ayres it is not so; and owing to the multitude of failures, and the constant suspension of paper money, people who have buried their ounces in an old well a year or two ago, and can now lay hold of them, are actually better off than the parties who have been constantly investing. Nothing can prove better than this the lamentable state of our money market. When gold locked up in an iron safe all the year round, affords a higher rate of interest (and without any risk) than capital employed in fair commercial transactions, we may safely say that we have arrived at that unenviable monetary climax, only to be termed extreme. The money market of Buenos Ayres is rotten at the core, and every day we pass without a currency reform, things are getting worse. If another new bank, with £500,000 capital, will be shortly started, we may possibly pass a year or more before specie will become scarce, but at present our money market is held up by the foreign capital flowing in, by nothing else. The unsophisticated individual who believes that patacons are going up, 'and remain up,' because this or that broker is obliged to sustain on market, is only to be compared to the man who believes that shortly the River Plate will run dry, as the current to the ocean is so strong. Ounce brokers may cause an immediate, but never a permanent, effect on the price of specie. Patacons were bid for to-day, but if the steamers had not brought us out by each packet, for the last twelve months, men with £500, £1000, £6000, and even £20,000, their price to-day, without the intervention of Mr. Salas, Mr. Jacobs, Mr. Hart, or any other of the leading brokers would be, instead of 29 (old) at least 80 dols, or more. If, however, now that capital keeps flowing in, the currency of the country was arranged on a secure footing, the effect of the balance of trade being against us would not be so much felt, because the one would counteract the other but situated as the country is at present, no one can answer for the result; a war in Europe, in which England or France takes part, would probably result not only in the loss of our strongest liquor, but cause a crisis infinitely worse than that of 1857, and if Rothschild takes from Barnes Ayres drafts or bills of exchange, to the extent of say £150,000. Let one half of these, aye, one quarter of them, be sent back to us protested, and what will be the result? Failure upon failure ensues; specie is called on to meet the drafts sent out; and although the credit and industry of the country has suffered no material change, still the medium of circulation must inevitably endure the most stupendous depreciation.

Owing to the insecure state of affairs in Europe, we have seen the country of England being dragged into a war on the Continent, we have felt bound to offer these remarks, because we firmly believe that so long as the currency of a country is the only subject of speculation, the money market of such a nation is but a factory of failures, and a curse and down comes the edifice. We know full well that there are sapient brokers who say that the matter of Mill Reefs was in a blaze it would not affect us. To these enlightened financiers our only reply is, that when the best investment for specie is to bury it up in an iron safe, it is time to beware. WIBER ARE THE OUNCES GONE to?

There are at this time many thousands of Confederate prisoners of war confined in the various forts and camps of the Northern States. A large proportion of them are wounded or sick, and all are in a state of destitution, the accounts of which, as given in private letters and in the newspapers, present a picture of human suffering, which has scarcely a parallel in modern times. The most necessaries of life are wanting, and frequently the wounded prisoner has no garments save that which is stark and stiffened with his clotted blood. Horrible as war is in all its features, assuredly it has no grater horrors than the long agony of the poor captive who, when the feverish excitement of the contest is over, is left to the bitter charity of strangers and foes, without one friendly hand to soothe the pains of body or friendly voice to whisper hope and comfort to his despairing mind. These men, cut off from the assistance of their kindred or the protection of their Government, have peculiar claims on the patriotism of their countrymen in Europe, and upon Christian benevolence everywhere. They did not recklessly or from choice embrace the profession of arms, but in exchanging the comforts, and often the luxuries, of home for the toils and hardships of a soldier's life, they obeyed a stern sense of duty and the call of their country in the extremest need. An unusual proportion, also, of them are from such aid as the means at their disposal render possible. Of late the Federal Government has granted permission that this Samaritan work may be done openly. It is earnestly hoped that all Southern residents in South Carolina will support the Fund to the extent of their ability, and its objects may recommend themselves to the respective of country or political convictions, who sympathise with the sufferings of their fellow-men.

Contributions will be received by J H Ashbridge, Treasurer, Walmer Bulding, Water Street, Liverpool; or in London, by Henry Hotze, Esq., 17 Saville Row, W., in Paris, by H O Brewer, Esq., 6 Rue Circulare; and Daniel Hubbard, Esq., 24 Rue Lord Byron.

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUÁ & C°

No. 103 calle de Cangallo. —

BUENOS-AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one in the Bank in which they place the most confidence

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already provided for the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of Clerks, artizans, working-men & servants of all classes & conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facilities in this city and will open on the 1st October a "Savings Bank" at No. 103 calle Cangallo from 9 a. m. to 3 p. m. on week days, and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a. m. to 12 m. for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

The Bank will deliver to each depositor a Pass Book in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited, in the former case the interest will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are sufficiently known to the public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighbourhood.

Buenos Ayres September 15th 1863.

p. the Bank of Mauá & Co.
WILLIAM LESLIE.

CONDITIONS.

1st. The Bank receives at interest any sum from Twenty five dollars currency or one silver dollar upwards.

2nd. The interest allowed is six per cent [6 p%] per annum which is liquidated every 6 months.

3rd. The depositor can at any time retire the whole or part of the money deposited.

4th. One amount deposited exceeds Twenty five thousand dollars currency or one thousand dollars silver the depositor if he wishes can open an account current according to the rules established by the Bank.

5th. In case the depositor loses his Pass Book it can be replaced by another on paying twelve dollars currency, and advertising the loss in the public newspapers.
